

CUB Study

Communicating and
Understanding your Baby

Supporting communication between parents and babies from birth

The CUB Study is a program that uses video feedback to support parents of babies with a family history of autism learn about the skills and capabilities of newborns, with the aim of enriching parent-baby interactions.

- Are you pregnant?
- Do you live in Perth?
- Does someone in your or your partner's family have a diagnosis of autism, ADHD or intellectual disability?

For more information or to take part:

T | +61 8 6319 1266 or 0435 123 825

E | CUBS@telethonkids.org.au

W | clinkids.org.au